State News.

E. P. Virgin and W. F. Adams, two well dressed young men of prepossessing appearance, were arrested at the Leland Hotel in Charlotte Tuesday morning on a warrant sworn out by Postoffice Inspector F. N. Davis. Mr. W. S. Orr served the warrant. These two men are suspected of being guilty of breaking into the postoffice at Mt. Olive, in Wayne county, blowing open the postoffice safe and taking therefrom $225 in money and about $50 or $75 in stamps. Both Virgin and Adams protested vigorously, saying that a mistake had been made and that they did not think it right or the part of justice to require them to be thus humiliated; that they were honest, hard working men, and though circumstances seemed to be against them, they were innocent of any wrong-doing. Commissioner Maxwell bound both over in a bond of $500 each. Failing to give this, they were taken to jail.

A young white man named R. B. Ussery, who says his home is in Rock Hill, was before the recorder in Charlotte Wednesday morning charged with being drunk in the Southern waiting room on West Trade street in that city. Ussery did not deny the charge. He admitted being drunk and said that he had come down from Huntersville Tuesday afternoon with $85 in his pocket and when he came to himself next morning he only had $2.36. There were two young men with Ussery when he went to Charlotte and he thinks one of these took his money.

It is reported that the Southern railroad has just received fifty-seven new locomotives and they are being limbered up at the company's shops at Spencer. The statement is that two years ago the Southern gave an order for ninety-seven new locomotives; but has not been able to get them before now for the reason that the locomotive builders were so far behind with their work. The Southern system has been badly in need of additional motive power, and it is hoped that the engines just received will very materially relieve the situation.

Mr. Albright Harden, of Greensboro, is to bring suit against S. A. Schloss and the city of Greensboro for injuries sustained by his little daughter in falling through the elevator at the Grand on the occasion of the entertainment given by pupils of the graded schools several weeks ago. The summons was served Monday, but the complain has not yet been filed. It must be in by the next term of court.

Will Harris, the negro desperado, who has on more than one occasion terrorized the Sugar Creek section of Mecklenburg county by using the midnight torch, was arrested Wednesday in Norfolk and is now in jail in that city. Will Harris is wanted in Mecklenburg for so many crimes that it would be exceedingly difficult to enumerate all of them. He will be brought back to Charlotte.

While he was preaching at a revival in progress at a colored Baptist church in east Wilmington Tuesday night, Rev. M. W. DeVane, colored; of Wilmington, lost his horse and buggy, which was tied to the church yard. Sneak thieves slipped up in the grove and drove the animal away. The property had not been recovered next morning.

John Copper, colored, was arrested in Wilmington before day Wednesday morning on a warrant from Florence, S. C., charging him with burglary. An officer was expected Wednesday night to identify the negro and take him back to Florence if he consented to go without requisition papers.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH

Meets With Great Ovations at All Stopping Places.

A BIG SPEECH IN MILWAUKEE.

He Addresses the Wisconsin Legislature and Afterwards Speaks to a Much Larger Audience.

Milwaukee, Special. — President Roosevelt was the guest of the Milwaukee Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association at a banquet at the Plankington House Friday night, the occasion being the climax of the day. The President sat in the centre of a long table with other guests of honor. At his immediate right, sat United States Senator Quarles, while E. A. Wadhams, president of the Milwaukee Merchants' and Manufacturers Association and toastmaster of the occasion was seated at his left. After the banquet had been served, Toastmaster Wadhams introduced President Roosevelt who responded to the toast "The President of the United States." The President took occasion to give his views on the subject of trusts.

Mr. Roosevelt's speech in part follows:

Mr. Toastmaster, Gentlemen:

I wish to speak to you on the question of the control and regulation of those great corporations which are popularly, although rather vaguely, known as trusts; dealing mostly with what has actually been accomplished in the way of legislation and in the way of enforcement of legislation during the past eighteen months, the period covering the two sessions of the Fifty-seventh Congress. At the outset I shall ask you to remember that I do not approach the subject either from the standpoint of those who speak of themselves as anti-trust or anti-corporation people, nor yet from the standpoint of those who are fond of denying the existence of evils in the trusts, or who apparently proceed upon the assumption that if a corporation is large enough it can do wrong.

DESTRUCTION OF BIG CORPORATIONS NOT DESIRED.

I think I speak for the great majority of the American people when I say that we are not in the least against wealth as such, whether individual or corporate; that we merely desire to see any abuse of corporate or combined wealth corrected and remedied; that we do not desire the abolition or destruction of big corporations, but, o nthe contrary, recognize them as being in many cases efficient economic instruments, the results of an inevitable process of economic evolution, and only desire to see them regulated and controlled so far as may be necessary to subserve the public good. We should be false to the historic principles of our government if we discriminated, either by legislation or administration, either for or against a man of either his wealth or his poverty. There is no proper place in our society either for the rich man who uses the power conferred by his riches to enable him to oppress and wrong his neighbors, nor yet for the demagogic agitator who, instead of attacking abuses as all abuses should be attacked wherever found, attracks property, attacks prosperity, attacks men of wealth, as such, whether they be good or bad, attacks corporations whether they do well or ill, and seeks, in a spirit of ignorant rancor, to overthrow the very foundations upon which rest our national well-being.

In consequence of the extraordinary industrial changes of the last half-century and notably of the last two or three decandes, changes due mainly to the rapidity and complexity of our industrial growth, we are confronted with problems which in their present shape were unknown to our forefathers. Our great prosperity with its accompanying concentration of population and of wealth, its extreme specialization of faculties, and its development of giant industrial leaders, has brought much good and some evil, and it is as foolish to ignore the good as wilfully to blind ourselves to the evil.

REMEDIES FOR A PORTION OF THE EVIL.

The evil has been partly in inevitable accompaniment of the social changes, and where this is the case it can be cured neither by law or by the administration of the law, the only remedy lying in the slow change of character and of economic environment. But for a portion of the evil, at least, we think that remedies can be found. We know well the danger of false remedies, and we are against all violent, radical and unwise change, but we believe that by proceeding slowly, yet resolutely, with good sense and moderation, and also with a firm determination not to be swerved from our course either by foolish clamor or by any base or sinister influence, we can accomplish much for the betterment of conditions.

FORMER SPEECHES RECALLED.

Nearly two years ago, speaking at the State Fair in Minnesota, I said: "It is probably true that the large majority of the fortunes that now exist in this country have been amassed, not by injuring our people, but as an incident to the conferring of great benefits upon the community, and this, no matter what may have been the conscious purpose of those amassing them. There is but the scantiest justification for most of the outcry against the men of wealth as such; and it ought to be unnecessary to state that any appeal which directly or indirectly leads to suspicion and hatred among ourselves, which tends to limit opportunity, and therefore to shut the door of success against poor men of talent, and, finally, which entails the possibility of lawlessness and violence, is an attack upon the fundamental properties of American citizenship. Our interests are at bottom common; in the long run we go up or go down together. Yet more and more it is evident that the State, and if necessary the nation, has got to possess the right of supervision and control as regards the great corporations which are its creatures; particularly as regards the great business combinations which derive a portion of their importance from the existence of some monopolistic tendency. The right should be exercised with caution and self-restraint; but it should exist, so that it may be invoked if the need arises."

Last fall in speaking at Cincinnati I said: "The necessary supervision and control in which I firmly believe as the only method of eliminating the real evils of the trusts, must come through wisely and cautiously framed legislation, which shall aim in the first place to give definite control to some sovereign over the great corporations, and which shall be followed, when once this power has been conferred, by a system giving to the government the full knowledge which is the essential for satisfactory action. Then when this knowledge—one of the essential features of which is proper publicity—has been gained, what further steps of any kind are necessary can be taken with the confidence born of the possession of power to deal with the subject, and of a thorough knowledge of what should and can be done in the matter. We need additional power, and we need knowledge . . . Such legislation—whether obtainable now or obtainable only after a constitutional amendment—should provide for a reasonable supervision, the most prominent feature of which at first should be publicity; that is, the making public, both to the government authorities and to the people at large, the essential facts in which the public is concerned. This would give us exact knowledge of many points which are now not only in doubt but the subject of fierce controversy. Moreover, the mere fact of the publication would cure some very grave evils, for the light of day is a deterrent to wrong-doing.

SUIT AGAINST THE FEDERAL SALT COMPANY.

In November, 1902, the Attorney General directed that a bill for an injunction be filed in the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco against the Federal Salt Company—a corporation which had been organized under the laws of an Eastern State, but had its main office and principal place of business in California—and against a number of other companies and persons constituting what was known as the salt trust. These injunctions were to restrain the execution of certain contracts between the Federal Salt Company and the other defendants, by which the latter agreed neither to import, buy, or sell salt, except from and to the Federal Salt Company, and not to engage or assist in the production of salt west of the Mississippi river during the continuance of such contracts. As the result of these agreements the price of salt had been advanced about 400 per cent. A temporary injunction order was obtained, which the defendants asked the court to modify on the ground that the anti-trust law had no application to contracts for purchases and sales within a State. The Circuit Court overruled this contention and sustained the government's position. This practically concluded the case, and it is understood that in consequence the Federal Salt Company is about to be dissolved and that no further contest will be made.

A SUCCESSFUL EFFORT.

The above is a brief outline of the most important steps, legislative and administrative, taken during the past eighteen months in the direction of solving, so far as at present it seems practicable by national legislation or administration to solve, what we call the trust problem. They represent a sum of very substantial achievement. They represent a successful effort to devise any apply real remedies; an effort which so far succeeded because it was made not only with resolute purpose and determination, but also in a spirit of common sense and justice, as far removed as possible from rancor, hysteria, and unworthy demagogic appeal. In the same spirit the laws will continue to be enforced. Not only is the legislation recently enacted effective, but in my judgment it was impracticable to attempt more. Nothing of value is to be attempted from ceaseless agitation for radical and extreme legislation. The people may wisely, and with confidence, await the results which are reasonably to be expected from the impartial enforcement of the laws which have recently been placed upon the statute books. Legislation of a general and indiscriminate character would be sure to fail, either because it would involve all interests in a common ruin, or because it would not really reach any evil. We have endeavored to provide a discriminating adaptation of the remedy to the real mischief.

ALLEGED REMEDIES TOO DRASTIC

Many of the alleged remedies advocated are of the unpleasantly drastic type which seeks to destroy the disease by killing the patient. Others are so obviously futile that it is somewhat difficult to treat them seriously or as being advanced in good faith. High among the latter I place the effort to reach the trust question by means of the tariff. You can, of course, put an end to the prosperity of the trusts by putting an end to the prosperity of the nation; but the price for such action seems high. The alternative is to do exactly what has been done during the life of the Congress which has just closed—that is, to endeavor, not to destroy corporations, but to regulate them with a view of doing away with whatever is of evil in them and of making them subserve the public use. The law is not to be administered in the interest of the poor man as such, nor yet in the interest of the rich man as such, but in the interest of the law-abiding man, rich or poor. We are no more against organizations of capital than against organizations of labor. We welcome both, demanding only that each shall do right and shall remember its duty to the republic. Such a course, we consider not merely a benefit to the poor man. We do no man an injustice when we require him to obey the law. On the contrary, if he is a man whose safety and well-being depend in a peculiar degree upon the existence of the spirit of law and order, we are rendering him the greatest service when we require him to be himself an exemplar of that spirit.

NO MORE INJUNCTION

Judge Adams Withdraws His Famous Restraining Order

WABASH MEN MAY NOW STRIKE

The Court Finds the Statement That the Men Are Satisfied is Not to Be Credited.

St. Louis, Special.—The injunction issued March 2, by Judge Elmer B. Adams, of the United States district court, at the instance of the Wabash Railroad officials to restrain the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Firemen from ordering a strike on that system, was dissolved Wednesday in a decision handed down by Judge Adams, a week after the hearing of arguments for and against the removal of the legal obstacle.

While no one will express an opinion as to the next probable move on either side, remarks dropped indicate that every effort will be made to effect a settlement and avert a strike. But if a settlement shall not be effected, the understanding seems to be general that a strike is sure to result. At Wabash headquarters it was stated that amicable adjustment of the controversy is hoped for. The same sentiment was expressed at the hotels, where are quartered the few representatives of the officials of the trainment and firemen now in the city. Counsel for both sides spent the afternoon in conference, but no agreement was reached.

Judge Adams announced that court would be in session and retain jurisdiction of the case, if desired, so that in the event of any molestation of or interference with, inter-State commerce or the mail service, all its lawful powers may be invoked to restrain the same, with the confident assurance that they will be fearlessly and effectively exercised.

The temporary injunction was granted by Judge Adams on allegations made by officials of the Wabash system that the defendants were conspiring to interfere with inter-State traffic and in the transmission of United States mails. Judge Adams in his decision says the provisional restraining order was made without notice to the defendants, under the stress of the facts disclosed by the bill and was fully authorized by section 718, Revised Statutes of the United States, and was imperatively demanded by the general principles of equity jurisprudence recognized and enforced in many similar cases in the United States and England, and many authorities warranting the provisional restraining order in question in cases of conspiracies to interfere with inter-State commerce and otherwise are cited in support of this last proposition.

Within the time allowed by the restraining order the defendants duly appeared and filed their sworn answer, denying the alleged conspiracy in all its phases and particularly denying any purpose to interfere with inter-State commerce or the mails of the United States, and especially denying that the employes were satisfied with wages and conditions of their service and denying the practice of any and all coercion or false representations to bring about a strike; avering that the only purpose of the present defendants in consenting to a strike was to better the condition of their members who were in the employment of the railroad by the exercise of their undoubted right to peacefully withdraw from such service until such time as their demands of wages ,etc., should be conceded.

The court, after fully considering all the proof, finds that the statements of the complaint to the effect that the employes were satisfied with their wages and conditions of service are not supported, irrespective of the question whether the men or the committee of brotherhood representing them first suggested the increase of wages and change of rules, the employes themselves at and for a long time prior to the filing of the bill of complaint were dissatisfied with their wages and conditions of service, and a real difference of opinion existed between the railroad and a large majority of its employes, members of the brotherhoods, with respect to their wages and that the defendants as officer and committees of the brotherhoods were fully authorized both by reason of their official relation to their members and also by direct written authority to represent them in the effort to secure higher wages and change conditions of service and the proposed strike instead of being officially ordered by defendants was a result of the vote of the employes acting without coercion and directly authorzing the same. The court further finds after a full examination of the evidence that the charge of conspiracy to interfere with the inter-State commerce of the United States or the mail service of the United States, is not sustained.

It is said that the wreck was caused by misplaced rails, supposed to be the work of vandals.

SOUTHERN INDUSTRIAL

Fine Ginghams Suggested.

Many Southern Cotton Mills are manufacturing ginghams of the lower grade and finding a ready market for their product. Southern manufacturers of cotton cloths have during recent years been developing their plants towards a better class of goods generally; in fact, the tendency of the Southern cotton-manufacturing industry is in the direction of finer yarns and cloths. It is now suggested that fine ginghams should not be neglected.

One of the leading dry goods merchants of Columbus, Ga., in writing of this in the Columbus Enquirer-Sun, says:

"I should think it would pay the Southern mills to manufacture a high grade of gingham for the home trade. It is almost impossible to buy the best grades of gingham. By the best grades I mean standard ginghams like Amoskeag, Lancashire, etc. It is true that some of the Southern mills make ginghams, but none of the best grades. Our firm has about stopped buying gingham from any but those mills whose product is recognized as absolutely standard. The Southern mills try to make a cheap quality, but I should think it would pay them to manufacture a real first-class gingham. The price has advanced to six cents, and it is hard to get orders filled even at that price. I am writing now regarding an order that was placed some time ago which has not yet been filled."

Durham Industries.

An address delivered before the Durham (N. C.) Chamber of Commerce by Mr. Thomas P. Fuller, a member of the board of aldermen of Durham, has been published in pamphlet form, and is being circulated in the interest of Durham's development. Mr. Fuller in his address showed that in the past 10 years Durham's population has increased from 5000 or 6000 prsons to about 20,000, the value of real and personal property from $1,547,519 to $9,041,802, its banking capital from $50,000 to $393,200, and its cotton-mill industry from one mill to six, with 102,080 spindles and 2468 looms, with an annual product valued at $2,801,175. The manufacture of yarns and sheetings into hosiery and tobacco bags by two of these plants add $507,000 to the annual output. Other industries in the city include four tobacco factories, three cigar and cheroot factories, one snuff factory, pants factory, roller flouring mill, telephone factory, three carriage factories, yarn factory, two planing mills, furniture factory, mattress factory, paper-box factory, bookbindery, dye works, foundry and machine shop and two brick factories. BANK CLERK SHORT.

Will Be Prosecuted by the United States.

HELD UNDER ARREST IN ATLANTA

Hallman Sims, a Trusted Employe of the Gate City National Bank, Charged Heavy Defalcations.

Atlanta, Special.—G. Hallman Sims, collection clerk for the Capital City National Bank, has been placed under arrest by United States Deputy Marshal Scott, upon a warrant sworn out by President Speer, of the bank, charging Sims with embezzling a sum estimated at nearly $94,000. Sims is now held at the Piedmont Hotel by the deputy marshal. He refuses to talk about the affair.

The first suspicion of a shortage in Sims' accounts arose Saturday. Expert accountants immediately began work on the books and it was soon disclosed that large sums had been abstracted at various times, extending back several years. The warrant was then sworn out by the president of the bank. Sims had been in the service of the bank for 8 years and was considered one of their most trusted employes. He moved in exclusive circles of Atlanta society and was a young man of fashion.

Prominent outside bankers have made a thorough examination of the bank's condition and have given out a signed statement that it is absolutely safe. A portion of the defalcation is covered by Sims' bond and he also owns some property, which will be turned over to the bank. The directors state that the amount of the defalcation has already been charged to undivided profits. National Bank Examiner Desausseure also states that the bank is in no danger. Sims, who has admitted his guilt, will be prosecuted by the United States government. He is unmarried and is the son of Thos. L. Sims, a prominent merchant of Kirkwood, one of Atlanta's suburbs.

Wabash Strike Over.

St. Louis, Special.—After four months of controversy between the employes of the Wabash road and the officials of that system, during which at one time a strike was imminent and was prevented only by an injunction restraining th employes from vacating their posts, and which injunction was dissolved last Wednesday, the differences were finally adjusted and the controversy satisfactorily settled. Officials of the brotherhoods representing the employes declare the settlement is satisfactory and is a sweeping victory for organized labor. The Wabash officials declare that all differences with the employes have been finally terminated in a satisfactory manner and that their future relations in all probability will be most harmonious. The following are the main points embraced in the settlement: Twelve per cent. increase for conductors, brakemen and baggage men in the passenger services and 15 per cent. for conductors and brakemen in the freight service over the rates which existed January 1, 1902, west of the Mississippi river. For the firemen, increases were granted on the Canadian lines in accordance with the Canada Southern division of the Michigan Central. On the lines in the United States material increases and improvements in working conditions were granted the firemen. East of the Mississippi river the rates will be brought up to this standard when competing lines in the same territory shall grant similar increases. The yardmen received a substantial increase, varying in different localities. There is an entire revision of rules applying to all classes of train service. This was the main bone of contention and was granted in its entirety.

In Hands of Receiver.

Akron, O., Special.—The plant of the Aultman, Miller & Co., manufacturers of agricultural implements, was, late Saturday, placed in the hands of a receiver, on application of Hon. George B. Crouse, president of the company. He and H. P. McIntosh, of Cleveland, were appointed receivers. The liabilities are placed at $1,800,000 with assets exceeding that amount.

To Discuss Heavy Subjects.

Philadelphia, Special.—The seventh annual meeting of the Academy of Political and Social Science will be held in this city on Friday and Saturday, April 17 and 18. DOES NOT "GOOD GOVERNMENT" INCREASE TAXES AND INVALUE THE STATE IN DEBT!

Our esteemed contemporary The Union Republican quotes a part of our editorial entitled "Does good government prevent or promote Crime" and after commenting at some length closes by requesting the CAUCASIAN to solve the question; "Does good government increase taxes, increase the indebtedness of the State and decrease the State's credit?"

To answer the Republican's query fully with actual facts and figures would require more time and space than we have to give at this time, but it must and shall be done at some future time—For the the present however if our neighbor will ex use generalities, we answer Yes! Most assuredly and emphatically "good government" increases taxes, for where is the farmer who does not know that he paid more taxes in 1902 than ever before on the same property? Where is the merchant who has not felt the burden of taxation more sensibly and the Aycock Simmons good government than ever before? Where is the corporation who has not been forced to put up more Cash to help support the "good government" so much boasted of while they are politely informed by the democratic bible that their property is yet grossly undervalued and until there is a readjustment of valuations the State must continue to carry her great and increasing load of indebtedness? And where is the person of whatever trade professon or avocation with the possible exception of democratic politicians and lawyers who is not expecting a still further increase in taxation for the present year to be forced upon him by the indirect and cowardly method of raising the valuation of property, as if it were less burdensome to pay a low rate on a fictitious valuation than a higher rate on the true valuation? Has not the word already passed down the line that the machine assessors soon to be oral ready appointed must raise the valuation of property throughout the State and thus help to raise the necessary taxes with which to pull the democratic party out of the hole? Let anyone who doubts that this is the scheme wait a few weeks and he will have a demonstration of how implicitly the average machine-made assessor obeys his boss.

More money they say must be had and there is not sufficient property in the State to raise it without a general increase of valuation. Property must therefore be forced up. There is perhaps an element of shrewdness in such a proposition but the common sense of the average farmer must teach him that if he be forced to pay the sum of fifty dollars to support the democratic machine it lifts none of the burden from his shoulders to have his homestead which is really worth one thousand dollars valued at two thousand. Why should innocent people be held up to the public gaze as tax dodgers, tax eaters and the like and every strategy known to the time serving politician be resorted to pry into and publish the private affairs of individuals? Is it true that the end justifies the means? It is true the emergency was and is great. There were two republican judges that must be impeached. Nothing short of impeachment would satisfy the animus of a certain element. They were hungering and thirsting for puplic plunder and the non partison court threatened to stand between them and the coveted prize. An expensive pass time to be sure but what cared they while the people were paying the bill by increased taxation?

Again there were ballot thieves being threatened. They had stolen the votes according to contract. They committed rape upon the suffrage of the people and were about to be overtaken with the law They had been promised protection and now the State Treasury must be thrown open to prevent retribution. Not only must they be defended with the State's money, but a bill of amnesty must be gotten through in order to forestall prosecution in the State Courts. This too cost money but what of that? The people paid and are paying the bill. Then to make a show of sincerity there must be a great flurry made about education. The white people became suspicious of the proposition to make voting contingent upon education, This objection must be answered by a promise and a pretense looking to getting the sons of illiterate white men in shape for the test. Nothing but a secret arrangement to borrow the money with which to make a start would convince the skeptical, but they must be convinced or somebody would likely fail of election—And now here we are at the threshold of the century a half million, or thereabout, in the hole—gone glimmering. A neat sum to pay the privlege of being ruled by the arrogant imbroglio masquerading under the pseudonym of democracy—So much for the showing made by "good government" in way of increasing taxation.

Now as to the increase of indebtedness the issue of $300,000 in bonds recently decided upon and the statement by democratic papers and politicians that this amount is insufficient to meet the requirements by at least two hundred thousand is itself a sufficient though much might be said in support of the argument that the half has not yet been told, and that we are just now beginning to enjoy a slight foretaste of the blessings "good government" has in store. As to the effect upon the States credit we simply point to the fact that the second effort is now being made to sell the bonds proposed and apparently buyers are not tumbling over each other in the effort to be first. The advertised "sale" turned out to be a farce and it remains to be seen whether North Carolina bonds will go any thing like the usual market value of this class of paper. Certain it is that the credit of the State is not improving nor is it likely to improve under such conditions.

Under Russell 4c bond sold 107 to 109. They are now quoted at 103

THE SCANDAL AT CASTLE HAYNE

In our last issue we published a special from Wilmington to the Raleigh Morning Post making some sensational statements concerning the sanitary condition of the sleeping quarters at the convict camp at Castle Hayne as charged by the grand jury of New Hanover county for the term of court that had just ended. The grand jury stated the quarters in which the prisoners are confined are very filthy and not fit for a human being to inhabit.

They further stated that the bad clothing was dirty damp and filled with vermin and that the white prisoners slept in the same quarters with the negroes.

We refrained from commenting on the condition of the camp in our last issue thinking there might be some mistake in the matter, but as we have not seen the statement denied it must be so awful as it is.

It sounds almost impossible that such a condition of affairs could exsist under the rule of "White Supremacy" and "good government".

This affair is about in keeping with the march of the Convicts from Spruce Pine to Marion some weeks ago upon which we commented at the time.

If this disgrace upon the State had occurred under fusion rule the democratic dailies of the State of the News and Observer stripe would have pawed the earth and foamed at the month for a month trying to tell their readers how damnable and disgraceful an affair it was upon the good name of the Old North State.

And now several weeks after the affair some friends of Walter H. Page deny that he dined with negroes at the New York dinner.

Since Cleveland is trying to forge to the front in politics again it would seem that it was about time for his friends to deny the report that he ever roomed with and had as an associate a negro lawyer by the name of J. C. Matthews in New York State, and whom he three times tried to ram down the throats of the Senate as Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia. That's all.

The Republican State executive committee will meet in Greensboro today to elect a State chairman and Nationol Committeeman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Pritchard.

A NOTABLE SPRING ISSUE

In the May Delineator is the first installment of The Bois-Brules, a novelette by Mary Hartwell Catherwood, the author of the popular Lazarre. The beginning of the story is intensely interesting and contains promise of highly dramatic events in the later development of the plot. The illustrations by Charles H. Stephens are very striking. Thyra Varrick, Mrs. Barr's splendid novel, ends in this number and interest is sustained to the last word. The Ring in the Moon is an short story by Phillip Verrill Mighels. Juan C. Abel contributes a finely illustrated article on Pinhole Photography. Waldon Fawcett describes the Colonial homes of the Washingtons, and exterior and interior views of the old manors are given. A Quest for Old Pewter by by Frances Roberts, is of especial interest to collecters, and the Savarin Dinner, by Miles Bradford, will appeal to epicures. Blanche Bates, the popular actress, is shown in a number of exclusive photographs. Miss Laughlin presents a stimulating chapter on the education of women, and Mrs, Birney adds another paper on childhood. Also, there is matter for the amusement and entertainment of the children, and of interest to the household, A charming and up-to-date display of current fashion is an important forture.

FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS

Catarrh Remedies and Doctors Failed—Pe-ru-na Cured.

MR. A. E. KIDD.

ELGIN, ILL.—In a very recent communication from this place comes the news that Mr. Arthur Ernest Kidd, a well-known architect of that city, has made complete recovery from catarrh of the head from which he had suffered for nearly a quarter of a century. He writes from 18 Hamilton ave.:

"I am 42 years of age, and have had catarrh of the head for over half of my life, as a result of scarlet fever, followed by typhoid fever. I got so bad that I was almost constantly coughing and clearing my throat. The catarrh greatly impaired my eyesight, and the hearing in one ear, and reduced my weight to 110 pounds.

"I tried nearly every catarrh remedy advertised, besides a great many different physicians' treatments, all of which failed.

"I had heard and read of Peruna, and finally decided to try it two months ago. I have now taken seven bottles, and weigh 172 pounds. Never felt happier or merrier. Feel tip top."—A. E. KIDD.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Why the Haywood-Skinner Case Was Continued

The Haywood-Skinner case came up in Wake Superior Court week before last, and Mr, Haywood was arraigned.

When the Bill of Indictment was read to Mr. Haywood and he was asked to say whether he was guilty or not guilty, he answered in a distinct voice, that he was not guilty. Hon. Walter E. Daniel was appointed Solicitor, and asked for an immediate trial. The Defendant asked for a continuance, and his attorneys made and argument to Judge Justice to continue the case. They cited many charges brought against the Defendant, and offered many facts in reputation of these charges. When the attorneys for Mr. Haywood had finished speaking, the attorneys for the prosecution replied, insisting on an immediate trial. They demanded an affidavit for the continuance. This was given and was very worthy. It was claimed on it that Mr. Skinner was not shot until after he had threatened to kill Mr. Haywood,

It named witnesses for Haywood who it claimed had been threatened and run off, and the names of Mr. Haywood's witnesses who had been abused,

This Affidavid was read in Court. Judge Justice asked the prosecution if they could admit it, This was not done Whereupon Judge Justice granted the continuance asked for. The case was then by consent set for trial on the first Thursday of July term.

Raleigh Street Carnival

Arrangements have been made with the different rail-roads running into Raleigh to give Special rates, which will be given on any and all trains coming or going from the city during carnival week. Special excursions will be arranged each day in addition to the regular trains so as to give the public an opportunity of leaving home in the morning, spend the day with us and return the same night at a reasonable time.

Press Notice for May Designer

The handsome cover of The Designer for May is significant of the many good things which follow, prominent among which are, of course, fashions and millinery for spring and summer, also many novelties in trimmings, all of which are most attractively illustrated. Aside from the fashion features worthy of the highest commendation are Floral Photographg, by Hubert McBean Johnston, Chines Little Folks, by Jessie Juliet Knox, and a full-page poem, My Lady's Gown, by Maud Sutton. Sweet Briar, by Proxy, and A Memorial Day, are the three short stories of the month, while The Housecleaners is a delight fullfarce delightfully illustrated A May-Day Celebrated and A Hunting Party are suggestions for entertainments, and directions for making many handsome novelties in crochet supply the fancy work. What Women Are Doing and Helps Along the Way are two departments which grow in interest each month, while Book Notes, In Mother Land.

The Kitchen Kingdom, Toilet Table Chat and Etiquette Hints are features which are valurble as well as entertaining. Points on Dressmaking treats this month of the making of shirred garments, and the Lesson in Millinery tells how to mace a Shepherdess hat. Novel Interiors, Selections for the Recitationist and poems by Thedosia Garrison Edwin L. Sabin and others add still further attraction to this remarkably attractive number,

A GREAT SENSATION.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind. when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die. had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerious. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by all Druggist. Trial bottles free.

ROBBED THE GRAVE

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed at any drug store.

Grip's

Grim Grasp Caused Heart Disease.

Could Not Lie On Left Side.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

Mrs. H. R. Jobe, formerly of Birmingham, Ala., writes from Eldredge, the same state, as follows:

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure. I only wish that I could tell every sufferer how much good they have done me. Last winter I had a severe attack of La Grippe, which left my heart in a very bad condition. I could not lie down for the smothering spells that would almost overcome me and the feeling of oppression around my heart. I had not been so that I could lie on my left side for a long time. I got your Heart Cure and took three bottles. I have no trouble now with my heart and can lie on my left side as well as my right. Formerly I had suffered for years with nervous prostration. I had tried so many remedies that I had got clear out of heart of getting anything that would help me. The nerves of my heart were so affected that sometimes it would lose beats so it would seem to stop altogether. It was on the advice of a lady friend that I tried your Restorative Nervine. I felt better after the first few doses and two bottles of Nervine and one of Heart Cure made me feel like a new person. My heart is all right and my nervousness is all gone. I never fail to recommend it to others afflicted as I was."

MISS IDA M. SNYDER,
Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

Miss Ida M. Snyder.

MENSTRUAL irregularities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about pale-faced, hollow-eyed and haggard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of her former self. But over 1,000,000 women have found health again by taking Wine of Cardui. As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, of No. 585 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, culture and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Thedford's Black-Draught is the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui and it is a liver and bowel regulator which assists greatly in effecting a cure. If you take these medicines according to directions, the relief and cure is simple. Some cases are cured quickly and others take longer because the disease has run longer. Remember how Miss Snyder took Wine of Cardui and has health. The same medicines are offered you to-day.

WINE of CARDUI
A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

A Ripans Tabule taken occasionally will keep the body clean within, resulting in a healthy and pleasing appearance without.

It is a good sensible plan to keep the body up to the high water mark of good health all the time.

The person who uses Ripans Tabules feels good all the time, they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach in good condition, and when the stomach digests the food properly, the chances of getting sick are lessened.

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness, and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains, and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."—MISS GUILA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary Amateur Art Association.

It is clearly shown in this young lady's letter that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will certainly cure the sufferings of women; and when one considers that Miss Gannon's letter is only one of the countless hundreds which we are continually publishing in the newspapers of this country, the great virtue of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine must be admitted by all; and for the absolute cure of all kinds of female ills no substitute can possibly take its place. Women should bear this important fact in mind when they go into a drug store, and be sure not to accept anything that is claimed to be "just as good" as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for no other medicine for female ills has made so many actual cures.

How Another Young Sufferer Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I must write and tell you what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered terribly every month at time of menstruation, and was not able to work. Your medicine has cured me of my trouble. I felt relieved after taking one bottle. I know of no medicine as good as yours for female troubles."—MISS EDITH CROSS, 169 Water Street, Haverhill, Mass

Remember, Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free, and all sick women are foolish if they do not ask for it. No other person has such vast experience, and has helped so many women. Write to-day.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

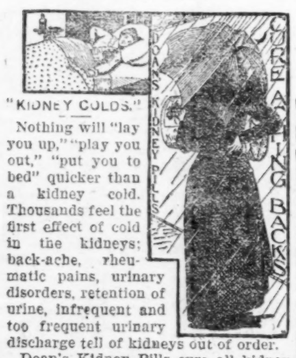
A Kansas man, developing a fruit farm in Cuba, writes thus enthusiastically about his surroundings: "We have forty-five acres of bananas in, that will bring us in eighteen months $8,000, almost $200 per acre. Show me the farm in the United States of this size that can match it. The labor will not exceed $1,000. Profit! Man! Why, this is paradise. I am not gassing either. The port is two miles away and we have been offered 40 cents per bunch at dock; 500 bunches to the acre. Pineapples pay $300 to $350, while oranges in six years' groth $350 to $500 per acre.

The cry of the penitent sinner has always been and still is for mercy. Nothing but mercy from an omnipotent God can redeem us.



"KIDNEY COLDS."

Nothing will "lay you up," "play you out," "put you to bed" quicker than a kidney cold. Thousands feel the first effect of cold in the kidneys; back-ache, rheumatic pains, urinary disorders, retention of urine, infrequent and too frequent urinary discharge tell of kidneys out of order.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills from common back-ache to dangerous diabetes.

A. T. Ritenour, owner of the wood yard at 125 East Cork street, Winchester, Va., says: "Ever since I had la grippe I have been a sufferer from kidney troubles, which made themselves apparent in racking pains through the region of the kidneys and across the small of my back. The pains were always severe, and sometimes so sharp and biting that they compelled me to take to my bed. The kidney secretions furnished further evidence of disorder. They were off color, irregular and painful of passage. Added to this there was an annoying weakness. The newspaper advertisements of Doan's Kidney Pills attracted my attention, and I procured a box of that remedy at Franck Baker & Sons' drug store. The relief I experienced was magical. The pills lifted me from my bed of sickness, placed me on my feet and made me a well man. I can work as well as ever. Doan's Kidney Pills, I believe, saved my life. They are a great remedy to stop kidney troubles resulting from colds."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Ritenour will be mailed to any part of the United States on application. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists. Price, 50 cents per box.

When Mr. Chamberlain was about to commence the speech which he made from the balcony of the Marine Hotel, at Durban, he was startled by the sudden apparition of a reporter, who slid down a pillar from the roof and arrived breathless and dusty, but notebook in hand. Mr. Chamberlain was astonished. "Whom do you represent?" he said. "The entire press of the Empire," was the reply.

At a recent debate among the members of a Philadelphia literary society on the question: "Should Capital Punishment Be Abolished?" a speaker in the negative took the position that as the general sense of justice of mankind for centuries had justified the death penalty for great crimes, therefore those of this generation ought not to abolish it, "for," said he, "if hanging was good enough for my father, it is good enough for me."

The Open Sky.

Underneath the open sky
I would let the world go by.
Every shred of harassing
Lapsing with the swallow's wing;
Every scrap from care's gray loom
Vanishing amid the bloom;
Every tissue of regret
Fading like the mists that fret
Height and hollow, ere the morn
In the Orient is born;
Every grief, or old, or new,
Soothed by God's unchanging blue,
And the hush-song of the rill
In the shadow of the hill,
Where the beech boughs whisper so
Tender, lovingly, and low;
Every doubt dispelled and blown
Even from the vision-zone
By the airs as kind as creep
Through the lilied fields of sleep;
Every fear transmitted to
Hopes as prismy as the dew,
And the old earth-joy again
Flooding soul and heart and brain;
Underneath the open sky
I would let the world go by!

IS YOUR HEALTH VALUABLE?

Disease is always a handicap; it unfits man for business and pleasure—sometimes temporarily then permanently. Life is a continuous struggle, and the man or woman afflicted with a Chronic Disease is outclassed at every turn. In this age of sharp competition, no man can hope to be successful unless sound in mind and body.

DR. HATHAWAY.

During my long career as a specialist, I have seen thousands who are carrying around some obstinate chronic disease as a burdensome companion, which they could easily rid themselves of by the proper treatment. Any honest physician will tell you that these diseases are stubborn and obdurate, and a special knowledge is required to treat them successfully. My special fitness for treating Chronic Diseases has been acquired by twenty years of close application, devoted exclusively to their study and treatment. I have treated more cases than any other physician in the United States, and I thoroughly understand just what is required in each case. My specialty includes all chronic diseases, such as Stricture, Varicocele, Blood and Skin Disease, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, Diseases of Women, etc., and my original method of treatment has proven successful in even the most obstinate cases.

I CAN CURE YOU AT HOME.

I have perfected a system of home treatment which enables me to cure you at your own home, as I have thousands of others. Write me fully about your case, and send for complete symptom blanks. Correspondence confidential. Address I. NEWTON HATHAWAY, M.D.

The Policeman Didn't Care.

"Help! Police! Stop him!"

Two men were racing madly along Clark, between Harrison and Van Buren streets, the other morning. The pursuer was doing the shouting. At Van Buren street he collided with a policeman and rolled into a gutter. By the time the bluecoat had picked him up the pursued was nowhere to be seen.

"What's all this racket about?" asked the policeman.

"Why, the man I was chasing tried to hold me up. Come along. Let's catch him."

"I wouldn't get so excited about the thing if I were you," remarked the bluecoat, wearily. "A hold-up man isn't like a museum freak. If you're lookin' for 'em just go stand in the middle of the block for a while, here's bound to be another one along in a little while."

And then the defender of law and order went to a patrol box and signaled to his station that all was well on his beat.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Coal Strike, greatest of modern labor crises, seems to have produced no fiction so far, but in Lippincott's Magazine for April there is a stunning little story called "An Involuntary Benefactor," by Edith Robinson, well-known for her "Mock Caliph and his Wife," which goes deep into the human motives of the Millionaire and brings him out of such suffering as he is accustomed to inflict a changed and sympathetic being. No more convincing comment could be offered, and the tale will be read eagerly by men and women of every shade of opinion.

The Dignified Usher.

In one of the boxes at a social affair at the Waldorf the other evening were two or three young women rather thinly clad. Their chaperon called to one of the ushers.

"I wish you would have that window behind us closed," she said.

"Certainly, madame," he responded politely, "I will send for a man to do it without delay."

The party waited a quarter of an hour, and then the chaperon made another complaint to the usher.

"I will see to it at once," he said.

After ten minutes more she called him again. "I shall have to close that window myself, unless it is attended to immediately," she exclaimed.

"By no means, madame," he said, with the utmost deference. "Unless the man comes very soon I will do it myself."

And the condescending individual was only a minor member of the great society of flunkies, at that.—New York Mail and Express.

Archibald Eyre, who writes the complete novel in the April Lippincott, is an English novelist whom the critics have booked for a sustained flight. His novel, "The Trifler," is both captivating and capital.

A New York dispatch says: "By a practically unanimous vote the newly-organized Manhattan Railway Employes refused to accept the proposition made by the officials looking to a settlement of the grievances of the men."
